Glen Dene Station is one of the most scenic working high country farms in the South Island. Glen Dene Adventures operates out of Glen Dene Station. The high country property is located in the South Island of New Zealand on the shores of beautiful Lake Hawea. Just 20 minutes from Wanaka. The unique property is situated between two of New Zealand's most iconic lakes, Lake Hawea & Lake Wanaka and comprises of some 20,000 acres, this provides a unique and picturesque location for you to enjoy your hunting Safari.

The hunting options vary from Huge Game Estate Red Stags proven from some of the best breeding stock in the country to an incredible free range fair chase hunt on a rugged mountain range that is accessible by over 70 kilometers of 4wd road system to get you the elevation needed to hunt these wary animals without having to start each day with a 2000 foot vertical climb. The abundant numbers of Red Stag, Fallow deer and Chamois makes this an ideal property to fulfill all of your New Zealand hunting dreams.

The Burdon family will be your hosts, all three generations of them. The experience of a lifetime as their goal and you will not be disappointed by any aspect of the hunt. This is a perfect couples retreat with 4 1/2 star luxury lakefront accommodation has guest suites located just off of the main homestead, international cuisine, with five 5 star hunting conditions is sure to make everyone on the trip happy at the end of the day. The property makes for a great base for small groups up to 8 hunters per week. With options for daily guided touring for the non-hunting companions from Horse trekking, jet boat rides up the Makarora River, local art galleries and cafes and of course not to be missed are the local vineyards.

We have a variety of hunt options available for you with Glen Dene adventures so if you are not seeing the combination of game animals that you would like please feel free to ask for a customized package to suit your needs.
